Sanitation Law and Policy in India An Introduction to Basic Instruments

by Philippe Cullet and Lovleen Bhullar

About the book

The past couple of decades have witnessed an increased interest in sanitation in India. In contrast to the policy perspectives on sanitation, however, there is a lack of awareness about its legal dimensions. This book contributes to fill this gap by piecing together the provisions of the existing legal and policy instruments that address the different dimensions of sanitation in India. In the process, it highlights the importance, complexity and fragmented nature of these legal and policy frameworks.

About the author

Dr Philippe Cullet is Professor of International and Environmental Law at SOAS, University of London and a Senior Visiting Fellow at the Centre for Policy Research, New Delhi.

Lovleen Bhullar is an Independent Researcher associated with the Environmental Law Research Society (ELRS), a non-governmental organization working on environmental law and policy issues in New Delhi, India.
